LET ME TELL YOU ONCE AGAIN WHO'S BAD... TEAM SEGA!

At the January Consumer Electronics Show I talked with Mark Cerny, one of Sega's hottest game programmers in Japan. Mark told me that, during his recent world tour, the mega-hot singer Michael Jackson took time from his ultra-busy schedule for a tour of Sega's Tokyo headquarters! How's that for an honor? After meeting some of the designers and programmers, and seeing how a video game is created, Jackson jammed on Power Drift, Altered Beast and some of the other Sega arcade hit machines. Then it was back to the stage for the rest of his tour. Just goes to show you... when you have the best video game system, the best people know it!

Now, check out what we have for you in this issue:

ALTERED BEAST™: The Sega arcade smash hit that's more than a howling good time. It's a thriller!

RASTAN®: Awesome arcade action for the Sega System with the hard-muscled, sword-swinging barbarian bounty hunter!

LORD OF THE SWORD™: A hot, new Sega Role-Play Game where the goal is to become king.

TIME SOLDIERS™: More two-player cooperative action straight from the arcades. It's out of this world!

VIGILANTE™: Brawling arcade action in the meanest streets of the city...and a race against time to save your babe!

CALIFORNIA GAMES™: Surfing, skateboarding, foot bag and more in a series of games that define cool, a good day at the beach and a radical state of being. Kowabunga!

That's it for now! Have a good read and stay tuned for the next issue. Remember

...Don't say
the N-word!

NAME THE SEGA NEWSLETTER CONTEST

During the last few months, we've been getting a ton of mail from you Sega gamers sending in your suggestions to name our newsletter. Well, the results are in, and the winner is (surprise!) ... SEGA. Just plain SEGA, like we've had for the last few issues. I guess you've decided that we don't need a special nickname or gimmicky title. Because when you've said Sega, you've said it all!

Details on winners in the next issue of the SEGA Newsletter.

SEGA[®] INPUT

Dear Sega,
Your magazine is absolutely awesome. I'm a very loyal fan of Sega, with 32 games, and I've convinced almost everybody I know that Sega is way better than any other system!

Mark Fields Falmouth, MA

Dear Sega,
I am a Sega fan and owner of 23 game cartridges so far! I'm enjoying the Sega magazine and the new games you keep coming out with. In future issues, I would like to see even more information on new games. Thank you.

Sammy Torres Lorain, OH

Great idea! We'll do it.

—J. Sauer

Dear Sega,
I just wrote to say Sega is the best video entertainment system money can buy. I've played the 'other' games, and they can't compare to Sega's technology. Also, your newsletter is a great item. I enjoy reading all the letters, tips, and info about all the new games. I really look forward to seeing the newsletter in my mailbox. Thank you.

Thomas Dudeck South Bend, IN

Dear Sega,
I've owned a Sega System for the past eight months, and I've enjoyed the games that I've played so far. I own 12 Sega games, and out of all of them, my favorite is AFTER BURNER™. So far, I've reached Stage 13, but I'm still fighting for Stage 18. I'm looking forward to the next issue of SEGA. Keep up the good work!

TIPS FROM THE TEAM

In SHINOBI™, if you hit a blue ninja in the bonus stage you get two ninja magic tiles instead of just one.

Phu O Pearl River, NY

In AFTER BURNER™, to shoot down the flying fortress faster, keep the fortress above your plane and fire missiles continuously.

Min Kim Gardena, CA

In PHANTASY STAR™, one of the second-hand shops sells secrets. Be stubborn and go back there three times asking for secrets. An important item will appear! Be sure to fight enemies such as Fish-Man or Were-Bat; they give you the most money and experience points, and a lot of money is needed to buy good protection and weapons. Also, whenever you get the chance, go to the church. The priest will tell you how many experience points are needed to raise you up a level.

Scott Alsbrook Visalia, CA

In KENSEIDEN™, to pass the last Boss, just hit all the rocks he throws at you. Then you have to fight another one. Just keep hitting him in the face and dodge the boulders he throws.

SEGA SECRETS

CYBORG HUNTER™: Use your Jet Pack and fly across the top of the levels. Doing this, you'll avoid the little guys of each level. That way you can go on to fight the main guys of the level. The number of main guys of each level is listed in white numbers on your game play screen.

QUARTET™: You are able to choose your levels. In the title screen, press the pause button 12 times. Then press the top left hand corner of your control pad #2 down and press Buttons 1 and 2 also. Mary's sound test screen will appear. Above her head in the top left corner are the level numbers. You can choose from levels 1 - 6.

THUNDER BLADE™: A) In the first 3-D stage (the City), no tanks from the left-hand lane can hit you if you fly at the bottom of the screen in the right lane. B) In the next 3-D stage (with the caves), no shots from any enemies outside the caves will hit you if you stay in the extreme bottom corners of the screen.

GREAT GOLF™: When choosing your shot strength before you putt, look at the dots on the flag stick while you're waiting to putt. Count the number of dots from your man's head up. Then on the scale that appears on the left of the screen, choose the same number you counted on the pole on the grid. Example: 3 dots on the pole, fill up 3 squares on the scale, then shoot.

KENSEIDEN™: A) In Round #4, take the stairs in this round all the way up 4 levels. On the very top level in the upper right corner on a platform is a Kokeshi (Wooden Roll). This will give you one additional life. B) In Round 2, there's a hidden room above the Buddha. You can enter the room by climbing to the top of the Buddha and simultaneously pressing the control pad up and Button 2 (the jump button).

ASK THE SEGA® MASTER

Q: In ALEX KIDD IN MIRACLE WORLD™, how can you break open the pink boxes with the star and/or fish on them?

Ryan Gibbons South Bend, IN

A: Whenever you come upon a pink box during ALEX KIDD IN MIRACLE WORLD, always punch it two to three times, and then continue with your journey. These boxes will help your game play, but they will never open.

Q: Are there any secrets in ALIEN SYNDROME™?

Jim Mack Pomona, CA

A: When playing ALIEN SYNDROME, touch the question-mark boxes from Space Ship Number Two onward. When you have collected all the question marks, you will start flashing. This is a temporary invincible mode. Here's another secret: On each ship there are green faces on the floor. When you shoot them they turn white, and you are given 500 points. Keep shooting these faces each time they are green. The more you shoot the more points you get, and if you collect 50,000 points, you'll get an extra man. The next free man will be awarded at 100,000 points.

Q: Can I choose levels on AFTER BURNER™?

Steven Smalls Philadelphia, PA

A: I'm sorry to report that you are unable to choose your levels in AFTER BURNER. However, there is a way to extend your continue feature. Just hit the pause button 100 times during the title screen. Then start the game. This must be done before the game's demo mode starts. There will be no special sign saying you have achieved the continue feature. You'll only be able to use your continue feature up until the 18th level.

Hard-Hitting Arcade Action
That Will Bring Out the Beast in You!

It's a universe ruled by ancient gods and spirit demons, where devastating battles can decide the fate of the world. Neff, lord of the undead, has kidnapped Athena, the daughter of Zeus. Distraught over his daughter's loss, Zeus brought our hero, a Roman Centurion, back from the grave to rescue her. To help him, Zeus gave Centurion the power of the Altered Beast. Using the Spirit Balls, Centurion can now shed his human form and transform into beasts of terrifying power!

Altered Beast brings all the exciting beastly action of the arcade smash hit right into your living room. As you fight your way from graveyard to cavern to subterranean castle, you'll battle hordes of nasty, gruesome creatures, all intent on stopping you from accomplishing

But you have an edge. If you capture the spirit balls released by defeating the three-headed wolves, you'll gain the power of the Altered

Beast. As your power grows, you'll transform into a muscle-rippling fighter, a yowling, howling werewolf, a weredragon, a weretiger, and finally, a golden wolf! As a man, you'll have the power to kick, punch, leap... anything it takes to send the undead back to their graves. And when you've transformed into the beast, you'll hurl fireballs and sonic shocks at your enemies. When you are a werewolf, you can even use a Flame Arrow, which turns your whole body into a flaming arrow, crashing into your foes!

The forces of the underworld are definitely not a wimpy class of evil creatures, so you're going to need strength and strategy to win. At first you'll battle headless zombies, three-headed wolves, and winged demons that attack

If you get to the end, you'll finally meet Neff himself. Defeat this ugly (and powerful!) monstrosity and you'll rescue the beautiful Athena. But if you fail, her fate will be worse than death. And that thought brings out the beast in you. So go you to the end of your quest: the final battle with the deadly red dragon of Semia.

SAUER SEZ

Here's a secret to give you more power in some events. After the Record Score screen appears, pictures will scroll across the screen. NOTE: This only works for Surfing, Foot Bag and BMX.

To win at the Flying Disk event, you've got to control both a thrower and a catcher. Determine a good speed and angle, then let your disk fly. For big points, make a diving or leap-frog catch.

The combat is fast and furious, and it's up to you to deliver the POWER STRIKE™ that will send the creeping rot six feet under never to sprout again!
